National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership

Accredited NPQ provider

Dates and venue to be confirmed

NPQML is designed for those who are, or are aspiring to become, a middle leader with responsibility for leading a team, for example:

- A key stage or pastoral service leader
- A curriculum area leader, a subject leader or head of department
- A special educational needs and disabilities coordinator
- A middle leader with cross-school responsibilities e.g. Specialist Leader of Education

Assessment

You will lead an improvement project at team level and write this up in a two-part portfolio.

- Part 1 is aimed at improving pupil progress and attainment
- Part 2 you will demonstrate how to improve the capability of your team.

Face-to-face days out of school: four full days

All four sessions will be held at: TBC

Time to complete: 6-12 months

Cost: £750

Masters' Credits

For an extra payment of £200, you can register for 20 Masters' credits at Newcastle University. This does not involve any extra assignments – your NPQML submission will be marked against Masters' criteria for the award of these credits.

If you achieve the Masters credits, you can subsequently complete the PGCert in Educational Leadership at Newcastle University in the following academic year.

Please see www.netsp.co.uk/npqml for further information about programme content and Master's accreditation and pathways
