Interested in training to be a RE secondary school teacher?

Our unique SKE programme developed with the Hild & Bede Trust

Receive a bursary top up to the value of £10,000

If you are interested in training to be an RE teacher but are unsure as to whether you have an appropriate degree, we have a unique programme suited to your needs. Supported by the Hild and Bede trust, we have developed our own SKE programme which will give you the core knowledge required to be a successful teacher of RE. Trainees will receive dedicated SKE sessions, based on your individual needs and delivered by experienced teachers. This bespoke programme which is the first of its kind also offers a bursary top up to the value of £10,000.

Would you like to come and spend some time in our RE department?

We can provide you with:

- The opportunity to talk about teaching RE with senior leaders and teaching staff.
- Advice on how you can gain valuable experience in a classroom to support your UCAS application
- A tour of the school and spend time in our RE department
- A chance to observe RE lessons
- The necessary information about our unique volunteering application, school experience and school direct programme
