North East Teaching
Schools Partnership

NPQSL is designed for those who are, or are aspiring to become, a senior leader with cross-school responsibilities, for example:

- An experienced middle leader
- A Deputy Head Teacher
- An Assistant Head Teacher
- A senior member of staff such as a Teaching School Director

Assessment

You will lead an improvement project across your school. The assessment portfolio has two parts.

- Part 1 is aimed at reducing variation in pupil progress and attainment.
- Part 2 you will demonstrate how to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of teaching.

Face-to-face days out of school: four full days

All four sessions will be held at

Time to complete: 6-12 months

Cost: £850

1. Tuesday 12th February 2019 - The Fountain Suite – Ramside Hall Hotel - Durham
2. Monday 4th March 2019 - The Fountain Suite – Ramside Hall Hotel - Durham
3. Thursday 4th April 2019 - The Fountain Suite – Ramside Hall Hotel - Durham
4. Thursday 6th June 2019 - The Green Room – Ramside Hall Hotel - Durham

Masters' Credits

For an extra payment of £200, you can register for 20 Masters' credits at Newcastle University. This does not involve any extra assignments – your NPQML submission will be marked against Masters' criteria for the award of these credits.

If you achieve the Masters credits, you can subsequently complete the PGCert in Educational Leadership at Newcastle University in the following academic year.

Please see www.netssp.co.uk/npqml for further information about programme content and Master's accreditation and pathways
