The Power of Projects – Finding Direction and Keeping the Interest Alive!

Venue: Manor Wood Primary School Foundation Stage Leeds – described by Ofsted as an “Inspirational environment for learning.”

Thursday 6th February 2020

Prince Bishops Teaching School Alliance are thrilled to be working with Manor Wood Primary School Foundation Stage to offer a specialised 1-day course on The Power of Projects – Finding direction and keeping the interest alive! Delivered in the spring term in a Reggio Inspired Early Years setting.

This course is suitable for Early Years Practitioners, Early Years Teachers and Leaders.

The Power of Projects – Finding direction and keeping the interest alive! promises to be an exciting professional development course where participants will spend time in an OUTSTANDING EYFS setting, join an EYFS practitioner in action and develop an understanding the importance of ‘Projects and Provocations’.

Transport and lunch is provided within the cost of the day.

A mini bus will leave Benedict Biscop C.E Academy at 7.30am, returning for 4.00pm
